

ElderTree Nursery Al-Hilal – Newsletter

November 2012

Eid Break is over and the nursery is back to its normal routine and working hours!

Silly hair Day in October was great fun for everyone; some of the children looked marvelous with their crazy styles of hair.

We all joined in for a wonderful party, where children sang and danced till they dropped.

They also enjoyed making silly hair cookies, which they shared.

Nov. Themes:

Camel class

When I grow up

Hippo Class:

Shapes and colors.

Penguin Class:

Shapes and colors.

Koala Class:

Bears in Parade

Pandas room:

It is about me / Mummy and Daddy

Upcoming Events:

Silly Hat day! 29th Nov 2012

Eid Al Adha* is always a great celebration for toddlers at Eldertree.

While looking forward to their vacation and quality time with mommy and daddy, they surely enjoy the activities that come along with Eid! Kids enjoyed making maamoul and assisting in crafting big size crafts wish they proudly displayed. Leading ahead to vacation, last day at nursery was fun day, full of celebrations, children enjoyed face painting and Henna ( of course with parents consent!) they also joined in to a lovely party dancing and singing.

